To Whom It May Concern

I am writing this letter in recommendation of Kim Hobson of All Coat Painters and his team.

Kim came to us through another recommendation of his work and started doing some interior work on our new property. After observing his quality work we employed Kim to paint the exterior of our house and a new outdoor area.

Through some very challenging weather and the Christmas holidays Kim and his team remained committed to getting the work done and meeting some very tight deadlines put down by us.

His knowledge on house maintenance and painting is extensive and appreciated. He went above our expectation in ensuring we had a quality finish that is noticed by those who visit our home.

Kim's team have obviously worked together for some time and work in harmony getting a job done to the highest level. They are polite, friendly and enjoyable to have around.

I would not hesitate to recommend Kim to anyone. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to ask.

Kind Regards
